

Ribblesdale High School

A foundation for success
since 1932

17th March 2017

Dear Parent/Carer

On Friday 24th March 2017, Ribblesdale High School are participating in Red Nose Day for Comic Relief along with many other schools across the country. Comic Relief is a UK based charity which supports many worthy causes nationally and across the world.

Outlined below is a list of the events planned and potential ways to support these special charities:

1. Everyone will be in non-uniform (£1 donation to be collected during morning form registration) with a red colour theme or something funny. The theme Red can be as simple as red socks or t-shirts.
2. There will be activities during break in our market stall such as selling chips and treats in a cup (£1), cakes at various prices, Red noses (£1), Chocolate Tombola, Hot Chocolate and Face Painting (£1).
3. During break/lunch there will be several whole school activities which can be entered or watched. We have Custard Pie the Teacher, Crazy Karaoke, Comic Paired Pottery, Sporting Challenges and Penalty shootout.
4. Also we are hosting staff v pupil challenges such as the Great Stare Off, the Great Comic Bake Off, the 2 minute Omelette Challenge and a variety of other comic events.
5. We also have Red Nose Day merchandise that be bought from Student Services during the next 2 weeks.

It is important that whilst we encourage non-uniform days pupils do comply with an appropriate dress code, therefore, we ask there be no extreme looks, short shorts or shirts, exposed mid riffs, permanent colouring of hair, excessive make up.

As you can see, we are getting into the spirit of Comic Relief and hope the day will be a massive success. If you would like to follow what is happening at school, log on to the twitter feed @ribbweb, visit our Facebook or visit our website for live updates throughout the day.

I would like to take this opportunity to say a big thank you for your continued support and proving once again just how very giving Ribblesdale is as a community.

Yours faithfully

Sharon Jennison
