Part A: Pupil premium strategy plan

Statement of intent

In line with the Ribblesdale Way and school ethos, our intention is that all pupils, regardless of background or challenges, participate in wider school life, enjoy all opportunities on offer and make excellent progress. The purpose of our pupil premium strategy is to underpin this.

Quality first teaching in all lessons is the cornerstone of the school's approach, ensuring that there is specific support in the areas where disadvantaged pupils need it most. Our approach is to build confidence in everyone and challenge each other with an ambitious and fearless approach to learning.

Our current priorities for our disadvantaged pupils reflect the challenges faced by such children both academically and socially. Building pupils' confidence and supporting them to understand the ways in which they learn, will result in better access to the curriculum, enhanced progress and improved overall wellbeing. Supporting pupils to consistently attend school by nurturing strong relationships with parents will ensure valuable curriculum time is not missed. Where any loss of learning has occurred, we are committed to ensuring that appropriate academic interventions take place inside and / or outside of the classroom and that those interventions are effective. There is also an increased focus on the mental health and well-being of our pupils and their families. As such, pastoral and mental health support is a key priority in our current plan.

Challenges

This details the key challenges to achievement that we have identified among our disadvantaged pupils.

2	The attendance of disadvantaged pupils is lower than the average attendance for non-disadvantaged pupils, resulting in lost learning and additional challenges in terms of both progress and overall wellbeing. This is especially true regarding persistent absence figures, which are higher in our disadvantaged pupils' cohort.

Whilst there is nothing significant statistically in our data regarding pupil suspension and permanent exclusion, disadvantaged pupils are more likely to be involved in incidents requiring intervention and support for their behaviour. At times, it can be more difficult to engage the parents of some of our disadvantaged pupils.

The data below shows the impact of the Lexonik reading programme on a sample of our pupils. A current challenge is to extend this highly effective but expensive support to all pupils who need it.
5	Our disadvantaged pupils were disproportionately impacted during lockdown (supported by several national studies) and thus are struggling more with social and emotional issues. Approximately 16 Early Help referrals have been for pupils eligible for Pupil Premium funding. 2024 In the first half-term, three disadvantaged pupils have had Early Help referrals made for them.
6	Lack of understanding by parents in the primary provision regarding pupil premium funding and eligibility and how this can support their child in school.

Intended outcomes.

This explains the outcomes we are aiming for by the end of our current strategy plan, and how we will measure whether they have been achieved (by the end of 2024/25)

Intended outcome	Success criteria
Improve Progress 8 amongst disadvantaged pupils such that it draws in line with 0 in KS4.	The validated exams data will indicate improved progress demonstrating that the gap is narrowing between pupil premium and non-pupil premium pupils.
To achieve and sustain improved attendance for our disadvantaged pupils so that it is more closely in line with their peers in school.	The overall attendance of the pupil premium cohort to be more in line with our non-pupil premium pupils. To reduce the persistent absence rate for all pupils and narrow the gap between pupil premium and non-pupil premium pupils.

To continue to improve reading amongst our PP pupils, impacting positively on levels of literacy	By 2025, our intended outcome is that, through continued use of Lexonik, reading intervention and effective CPD for staff, the reading ages of PP pupils will continue to improve.
To ensure systems and procedures are more effective in the early identification of pupils with speech, language and communication needs.	Staff will have the necessary knowledge and expertise and there will be a clear whole-school system for early identification of pupils with speech, language and communication needs. Appropriate intervention and support are then implemented.
To ensure that all possible pupil premium support is allocated in the primary phase and distributed equitably.	Systematic process embedded in the first term of EYFS to ensure early identification of needs.
To ensure that all pupils, regardless of circumstances, can choose options that best support their ambitions and for increasing numbers of disadvantaged pupils to choose the EBacc pathway as appropriate.	All disadvantaged pupils will have had access to careers interviews prior to starting the options process as well as opportunities to visit Higher Education campuses. We will offer a broad curriculum and encourage uptake of EBacc with all our disadvantaged pupils. Parents will be actively engaged in this process and empowered to support their children.
To maintain regular and positive communication with the parents of our disadvantaged pupils to ensure the best possible outcomes academically and holistically.	The already increased engagement through the Synergy platform will develop further with bespoke communication and alerts for hard-to-reach parents. The range of pupil, staff and parent voice, which is regularly collected, is used to inform next steps as to how we can engage parents further. Evidence that the current upwards trends in hard-to-reach families attending parents' evenings is built upon and harnessed as much as possible.
Improved overall wellbeing for pupils including those who are disadvantaged and may have been adversely impacted on by the pandemic.	Strategies have been effective in identifying and supporting pupils in EYFS who have experienced lack of early socialisation and development of social skills. Evidence that pupils who have received support through the mental health support team, school counsellor and other external agencies are accessing their education, making progress and have improved overall wellbeing.

Activity in this academic year

This details how we intend to spend our pupil premium funding this academic year to address the challenges listed above.

Teaching (for example, CPD, recruitment and retention)

Budgeted cost: Ribblesdale commits investment in excess of the monies received from the government in pupil premium funding, reflecting our deep rooted commitment to this area of our work. This is due, largely, to the school's high staffing of pastoral support which includes six pastoral co-ordinators, a part-time school counsellor, two pastoral intervention managers and an attendance officer. Further details are available from the school upon request.

Activity	Evidence that supports this approach	Challenge number(s) addressed
Making use of training and CPD around self-regulation and trauma informed practice to inform systems and procedures across school.	The format and structure of inclusion has been fully revised to include a range of areas and provision which can be accessed in response to individual need and circumstances. The area has been renamed 'The Bridge' and learning is led by trained pastoral staff and specialist SEMH teaching assistants. Here a range of assessment and development tools are used to identify and meet the needs of pupils. The Bridge has proved effective in facilitating cohesive work between the school's SEND, pastoral and curriculum teams for the benefit of pupils. CPD for the wider staff has maintained a focus on adaptive strategies and classroom engagement techniques. The school embraces trauma informed practice to support and reintegrate vulnerable and dysregulated pupils. As seen from Trauma Informed Lancashire: Little-Book-of-Trauma-Informed-A5-Final-print-2023.pdf (traumainformedlancashire.co.uk)	5
Equalities ambassador working as direct link to key areas across school.	Attendance practice is informed by the DfE guidance found here: Working together to improve school attendance (publishing.service.gov.uk) Continued focus on attendance and running the Attendance Academy which is having a positive impact on some pupil premium pupils. Consulting with the pastoral team and contributing to the development of the school's new inclusion unit to ensure that bespoke intervention can be put in place for disadvantaged pupils. Collaborating with staff at the primary provision to implement an effective system for identification and support of pupil premium families. Close links with curriculum areas to ensure that colleagues positively discriminate in favour of	2, 3, 6 disadvantaged pupils with regards to intervention and opportunities for developing cultural capital.

To continue to raise the profile of our disadvantaged pupils through the continued promotion of Quality First Teaching. Synergy platform enhances staff planning and delivery of lessons to disadvantaged pupils, monitors engagement of pupils and supports targeted interventions as well as helping us reward pupils. We now have a system via Synergy that allows us to monitor trips and events that disadvantaged pupils engage with.	John Hattie recognises the importance of relationships between pupils and staff. The relationships that staff develop, through Quality First Teaching, is key in ensuring all pupils can feel safe and secure, while also fuelling a love for learning. The EEF School Improvement Guidance Document details that high quality teaching maximises learning. The best available evidence indicates that great teaching is the most valuable tool at schools' disposal to raise pupil attainment. The use of Synergy as an embedded platform allows staff to 'know your pupils' – not just know them by name but understand who they are inside and outside of Ribblesdale.	1, 2, 3, 4
Continue to explore and promote the effective use of EdTech to provide real time feedback from assessments and diagnose pupils' misconceptions	Michael Fullan and John Hattie recognise the positive impact technology can have on the learning and progress of our pupils, when used intelligently. We continue to build on our expertise in EdTech and provide timely and relevant training to support staff. Department areas have created bespoke ways to provide online learning and instant feedback. This will promote independence and support staff in the careful selection of platforms for the desired impact e.g. Sparx Maths, LBQ, Tassomai etc.	1, 4

Targeted academic support (for example, tutoring, one-to-one support, structured interventions)

Budgeted cost: Again, the school commits monies beyond the funding received to ensure that academic support is available. Examples of support provided include structured interventions in our newly redeveloped inclusion provision, after school revision and tutoring, reading interventions such as Lexonik, holiday tuition as well as staffing and online support for bespoke curriculum models. Further details are available upon request.

Comprehensive literacy support enables pupils to develop a much deeper appreciation of language and vocabulary to support them to access the whole curriculum effectively and build confidence. Our internal average reading age data demonstrates that we are closing the gap between disadvantaged pupils and non-disadvantaged pupils as pupils move through the school years. Part B: Review of the previous academic year

Outcomes for disadvantaged pupils

Overall, attendance is positive across school compared to both regional and national data. This includes comparisons for pupil premium pupils. This is because of the work of the Equalities Ambassador and Attendance team and through the creation of the Attendance Academy, rigorous tracking of attendance across distinct groups, improved parental relationships and engagement and the work of the pastoral team with children who are school avoiders. Attendance competitions such as the 100 Club have also shown supportive measures in place to reward pupils, including pupil premium, for outstanding attendance.

To support reading for all pupils, but especially pupil premium pupils, a reading day has been added into the form time curriculum. Pupils are encouraged to read based on their interests in order to support their reading fluency. For pupils that require further support, reading interventions have been put in place and are well attended by pupils in Year 7-10.

While the progress gap between pupil premium pupils and non-pupil premium pupils has widened slightly at KS4, we are incredibly proud at the fact that our last group of school leavers produced 0 NEAT pupils. This is testament to the impact of the careers team right from Year 7 and through to Year 11. All pupils receive a one-to-one careers meeting with external advisors with priority given to pupil premium pupils. Our Ribblesdale Way underpins everything we want all pupils to be able showcase and having every single one of our school leavers in Further Education, Apprenticeships, Employment or Training, is testament to the relentless Teaching and Learning and opportunities provided for pupils.

The school has seen a huge reduction in the number of suspensions because of the pastoral systems, support provided and renewed focus on quality first teaching. There was only one pupil permanently excluded last academic year, this was a one-off incident, and this pupil was not eligible for pupil premium funding.

There was an increase in the number of pupil premium pupils requiring internal inclusion, however this was a strategy adopted to reduce the need for suspension allowing for the bespoke intervention and reduction of lost learning by keeping pupils in school. The successful redevelopment of our Inclusion Unit, The Bridge, has had a significant impact on the reduction of internal and external suspensions, as well as the number of repeats.
